"Since she's joined [CDC]...her confidence level has shot through the roof"

RHODA LIU
ALLYSSA'S MOTHER

Dear Friend of CDC,

In this edition of the newsletter, we have a special feature celebrating the success of one of our CDC families. Watch the video above to see Allyssa's journey and development through time, as told through her mother's eyes. If you would like to support more children like Allyssa, please consider donating via our Matching Pledge. Donate now to double your impact!

Over the past few months, we have organised a few trips for our CDC families, including our first CDC Family Fun Sports Day, as well as a day trip at the Holiday Farm, where the families enjoyed a wide array of activities! In addition to that, we also arranged our first vaccination project for CDC families.

Check out our 'SEN Tips' section for an extra 'dose' of parenting advice and strategies. And don't forget to check out the upcoming events this winter!

SEN Tips

5 Board Games for Family Fun

Board games are a really great way to take time away from electronic devices, have a break from homework or to play on a rainy day. Check out our top 5 family board games!

Take Action with Verbs

Children need to learn all kinds of words to be able to communicate, and verbs are necessary to help them begin to build their first short sentences. 'Take action' and learn how you can help your child!

Benefits of Outdoor Play

Going to the park and playing in the playground may seem basic but there are many reasons why it is so important for your child's development. Click to discover some of the benefits of outdoor play!
